THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY October 23d, to THURSDAY October 30th, 1755.

LONDON, August 28.

WE are informed, from good authority, that all veſſels intending to cruize againſt the enemy, will be taken into the pay of the government, at a certain rate per ton per month; and that the officers and men will receive men of war's pay, during the limitted time contracted for: By this regulation, the poor men will be at ſome certainty as to pay, and be more likely to receive their prize money with eaſe and expedition.

Gosport, Aug. 26. An order is come to the dock, to receive any part of Sir Edward Hawke's fleet, and to dock and equip them for ſea with the greateſt expedition, without waiting for any farther orders.

Boſton, October 7. By letters from the camp before fort Cumberland, in Nova Scotia, of the 8th ult. we have advice, That on the 27th of Auguſt, major Fry, with ſeveral Officers and 200 men, embark'd on board the ſloop York, capt. Cobb, and the ſchooner Warren, capt. Adams: and the ſame evening landed at Chipoudie, a village about 8 leagues up the river, having inſtructions to bring off all the inhabitants and ſet fire to the houſes. That upon their firſt landing they march'd with an advance and two flank guards to the village, but found all the inhabitants were fled except 25 women and children, who were taken priſoners. The next morning they ſet fire to the buildings and burnt down 181 houſes and barns, with all the hay, grain, &c. therein. After this they proceeeed to a maſs houſe, which, with what was therein, was burnt to aſhes;—then putting the priſoners aboard one of the tranſports which lay ready for that purpoſe, they embark'd again; and the next morning 2 of the officers with 62 men were ordered to proceed to Pitcoudiack; and having landed within ſight of the arm'd veſſels, they found the houſes entirely evacuated; and by the 1ſt of September, they laid the buildings in aſhes for 15 miles in length on the Northerly ſide of the river, and about 6 on the other ſide; and when they came in ſight of a maſs houſe, they diſcovered foot tracks lately made, and ſoon after perceived a ſmoke; the maſs houſe being cloſe to a thick wood, they poſted proper guards, and as they were preparing to fire the houſe, a ſignal gun was fired by the enemy; upon which they were oblig'd to ruſh thro' them as well as they could, firing their pieces, and receiving their fire; and while thus retreating, the Indians gained ground, and ſhot lieut. March, and took and wounded ſome others. But a ſerjeant with 6 men coming from a copſe of wood, ſtop'd their purſuit, ſo that the reſt of ours gain'd the Dyke, and ſecured their retreat. At this time it was impoſſible for major Fry to come to their aſſiſtance, on account of the rapidity of the river, being driven by the current 3 quarters of a mile below the intended landing-place; but landing the reſt of his men as ſoon as he poſſibly could, drew up the whole body, and made a ſtand; upon which the enemy halted, and our forces kept the ground; they likewiſe drew up in a body, beſides the Dykes lined with Indians, and parties ſcouting in the woods, ſuppoſed to be upwards of 300, but they were not inclined to engage our forces in an open manner, tho' with ſuch a number they might have done almoſt as they pleaſed. At high water the two armed veſſels got in as near the ſhore as they ſafely could, and covering each of the flanks, ſent their boats aſhore, and took our men and carried them on board; the veſſels during the embarkation, firing their cannon and kept the rebels off. Several of the enemy were killed but how many is uncertain. 253 houſes and barns, beſides the maſs houſe, have been burnt.

Boſton, October 9. By a letter from Halifax, dated the 22d of September, we learn, that Capt. Rous was returned there from a 6 weeks cruize on the French encroachers of Newfoundland, where he has laid waſte all their fiſheries and improvements; and ſent the inhabitants off the iſland to Louiſbourg; and that he has likewiſe taken 2 ſhips and 2 ſnows laden with fiſh, ſalt and oil; alſo a ſhip with proviſions from St. Malo for New France; and that on his return to Halifax, he alſo met with a ſhip and a dogger from Old France, with proviſions, which he alſo took, and got them all ſafe in. And,

By letters from the ſame place, dated the 1ſt inſt. we learn further, that admiral Boſcawen, conſidering the ſeaſon of the year was ſo far advanced that it would be improper to continue ſuch a number of his majeſty's ſhips in thoſe ſeas, had ordered them all into the harbour of Halifax, except two which were left on the cruize; and by the advice of a council of war, determined to ſail in a fortnight for England, leaving a ſquadron under the command of capt. Spry, for the protection of that and the neighbouring colonies. Among the veſſels that were taken in their cruize off Louiſbourg, 16 were laden with proviſions.

We alſo learn by another letter, that on board the veſſels taken by capt. Rous, there were 3870 barrels of flour, 1170 firkins of butter, 750 barrels of pork and beef, 1200 caſks of brandy and wine, beſides caſes of cordials, &c.

Halifax, Sept. 27. On monday laſt arrived here the Jolly Bacchus (a tender belonging to the fleet) from Lunenburg with the inhabitants of a ſmall French ſettlement a little above that place; they have bro't all with them but two, who we hear fled to the Indians for ſuccour and aſſiſtance.

Wedneſday laſt arrived here the hon. rear-admiral Holbourn, in his majeſty's ſhip Edinburg, alſo his majeſty's ſhips Centurion, Auſtria, and Norwich, from their cruize off the harbour of Louiſbourg: On their paſſage they met with 3 French men of war who had made their eſcape from Louiſbourg, to whom they gave chace for ſome time, but theirs being clean ſhips and ours conſiderably foul, they ſoon loſt ſight of them. Yeſterday arrived here his majeſty's ſhip the Dunkirk, who had been upon the cruize with admiral Holbourn.

We have now in our harbour, 3 admirals, with 19 line of battle ſhips, 3 of 20 guns, and one ſloop, which make a grand appearance.

New-York, October 13. Tueſday evening laſt, col. Dunbar, with the Britiſh forces under his command, being near 1500, arrived here, in a fleet of 32 ſail, from Perth Amboy. The next day they ſet ſail for Albany.

And on thurſday arrived here 3 ſloops from Cape Cod, with 160 new raiſed ſoldiers on board deſigned for our victorious army to the Northward.

By the laſt accounts from Lake George, we are told, that on the 28th of September, a ſcout of 4 men who had been ſent out to view the French at Ticonderoga, were returned, and reported, that the enemy at that place, had a camp and fort as large as ours: And that on the other ſide of the fireight they have another of about 1000 men. That in the morning after they had harboured at a ſmall iſland in their rout, a bateaux with 10 perſons, one of which was a French officer, came cloſe by them; and that they fired and killed 6 out of the 10, and would have taken the other 4 priſoners; but ſaw at a diſtance others coming to their aſſiſtance. They brought with them an Indian priſoner, who was wounded in the late action.

A ſcout of 13 men who have been at Crown Point, were alſo return'd, and brought in one of the enemy's ſcouts. They gave the ſame account as above.

Intelligences from Oſwego, we have hardly any to mention, ſave, indeed, that the army lay ready to depart only the 26th of September, waiting then only for a fair wind.

Baron Dieſkau, the French general, is expected in town this week from Albany.

Part of a letter from Albany, Oct. 6.

"Our governor is now here, and we are all very buſy in expediting ſtores and proviſions to the army under general Johnſon. The late victory muſt make a deep impreſſion upon the French as well as all the Indians in their intereſt: And as ſuch powerful reinforcements are continually coming up to our army from New England, we may hope ſoon to gain our point at Lake Champlain. The Mohawks are in excellent temper, being enraged at the loſs they ſuſtain'd in the late battle."

CHARLES-TOWN, October 30.

On Tueſday laſt arrived here Capt. Young, from Poole. He left Stutland Bay the 6th of laſt Month, and there heard, the Day before he ſail'd, that Admiral Hawke had ſent 8 French Ships into Spithead: On the 10th, in Lat. 47, 45. Long 8, 10, he was brought too by His Majeſty's Ship Monmouth, Capt. Harriſon, the Lieutenant of which came on board and told him, ſhe had taken and ſent 7 French Merchantmen into Plymouth; and that ſhe parted from Admiral Hawke the Night before, by whom ſhe was ordered in Chace of 3 Ships: In two Hours after, on the ſame Day, he was again brought too, by the Elizabeth, Capt. John Montague, who was in Company with the Lancaſter, and 5 French Veſſels the latter was convoying for England: And on the 11th he was once more brought too, by the Vanguard, the Hon. Capt. John Byron, and the York, who had with them 3 more French Veſſels, and had ſunk 2. The Vanguard had two Victualling-Ships under Convoy, and was cruizing for Admiral Hawke.

By the lateſt Accounts from New York and Philadelphia, the French were reported to be 10,000 ſtrong about Crown Point; and are ſaid to have drain'd all Canada of moſt of its Men to collect that Force, being determined to maintain that important Paſs, and ſtop the Progreſs of our Armies. The Accounts of General Johnſon's Strength vary; ſome make his Army conſiſt of only 6000 Men; others, of 8000; and others again (who include the troops under Col. Dunbar) of 10,000

Yeſterday died, the Rev. Mr. Henry Heywood, a Baptiſt Preacher in this Town; who was eſteemed one of the greateſt Scholars in America.
